

My Mind

I feel I lost my heart

And nobody will find it

And all i have remains

My mind inside the head

And all arond the world

Seems to me such silly

And the pain destroy my feelings

I quickly close my eyes

And i start to understand

That i'm broken off by...

Mind....

Inside the head....

My mind....

Inside the head....

Inside my head...

I try to trust myself

I try to trust each action

But mind inside the head

Constantly me confuse

And all arond the world

Seems to me such silly

And the pain destroy my feelings

I quickly close my eyes

And my soul slowly dies

Couse i'm broken off by...

Mind....

Inside the head....

My mind....

Inside the head....

Inside my head...

Mind....

Inside the head....

My mind....

Inside the head....

Inside my head...
