

Sad Faces

Deliver us from cold ice

Of this disguise.

We're trying to find out.

Unfortunately, we denies to size the size of deadlines.

We'd better hide it out.

Distant future tell us something.

We don't listen, think – it's nothing.

It's the moment of frustration

When good people are sad nation.

Distant future tell us something.

We don't listen, think – it's nothing.

Some of cases it erases –

So good people are sad faces.

Imagine the hollow and there's no one around to follow.

And it's you to find the one.

But if there's you, there is no hollow.

Only one person left.

So follow.

Distant future tell us something.

We don't listen, think – it's nothing.

Some of cases it erases –

So good people are sad faces.
