

The Restless Moments of Love

For you

I will try my best to change the world,

Try my best to keep the single truth –

Black and white,

Day and night –

All this simple things are basis.

Our lives –

There is nothing special, but I think, that

Sometimes we should pay attention.

Oh, Jesus, look at me now.

Some bastards getting me down.

No matter, I will stand up

For the restless moments of love.

Oh, Jesus, look at me now.

Some bastards getting me down.

No matter, I will stand up

For the restless moments of love.

This fall

Gives me heartache, gives me strength,

It gives me everything I've ever wanted

You.

Is it love?

Or maybe trap?

It's the deepest place I've ever been to.

Oh, Jesus, look at me now.

Some bastards getting me down.

No matter, I will stand up

For the restless moments of love.

Oh, Jesus, look at me now.

Some bastards getting me down.

No matter, I will stand up

For the restless moments of love.

For you

I will try my best to change the world,

Try my best to keep the single truth –

Black and white,

Day and night –

All this simple things are basis.

Our lives –

There is nothing special, but I think, that

Sometimes we should pay attention.

Oh, Jesus, look at me now.

Some bastards getting me down.

No matter, I will stand up

For the restless moments of love.

Oh, Jesus, look at me now.

Some bastards getting me down.

No matter, I will stand up

For the restless moments of love.
