

The Story Of One Ghost

Will you keep me

Keep me

Keep me in your mind?

Or will you break me

Break me

Break me down inside?

Oh, I am ordinary thing.

I can't even see.

I know that I've been left

Forever.

But you,

Will you pick me up tonight,

Show me left and show me right,

Go with me on other side

And reach the limits of my kind?

I am ordinary thing.

I want feel and I want see.

Never want to be alone.

Want you cry when I'm gone.

Come and pick me up tonight.

It's time to choose the left or right.

You're waiting me on other side

To reach the limits of my kind.

I am ordinary thing.

I want feel and I want see.

Never want to be alone.

Want you cry when I'm gone.

Come and pick me up tonight.

It's time to choose the left or right.

You're waiting me on other side

To reach the limits of my kind.
